FROM THE PRESIDENT

Luckily our hurricane season is coming to an end without incident but our Garden Club year is finally off with a bang. Our October meeting launched our new year and it was so good to see all of you. With our membership now at 29 please join us Monday, November 23 at 12:45 and bring a friend! I'm looking forward to seeing you all then.

Elaine Minga, President

SUPPORT AND SYMPATHY

With much sadness, we bring to your attention that Angie Reese's husband Miles passed away recently from Covid-related issues. Angie is an active, much loved member of our Garden Club and our sympathies and prayers are with her at this time.

Our Membership Chair, Pat Duzan recently suffered a fall that has left her struggling and incapable of getting around. Give her a call and see if you can be of help, grocery shopping, providing a meal, etc. Prayers and Love to Pat.

NOVEMBER MEMBERSHIP MEETING Nov 23

Workshop for November is our much-anticipated cement stepping stones! Come prepared! You'll need a veined leaf (to impress into the cement), gloves, a cardboard box to carry your project home in (9 inch diameter project). Wear clothes that can get nasty. This one's going to be fun! If you're opting for the cement pumpkin, bring knee-hi or old panty hose.

Our speaker is Dale Galiano, giving us tips on humor and garden whimsy—one of our favorite topics! Bring a friend!

ROSES AT THE GARDENS

Weather is messing with our calendar! Next work session is Tuesday, Nov 17.

Please consider helping out. There are jobs of all skill levels needed: pruning, vine twining, mulching, weeding—maybe just supervising! A couple hours, starting at 8:30 am. Bring gloves, pruners, sunscreen, water and wear a hat. Masks optional as we're outdoor. Please help! More from Anne at each meeting.

ROAD TRIP! BOK TOWER, LAKE WALES—DECEMBER 7

Covid has put the cab bosh on our usual December bus trip/fund raiser—just can't social distance on a bus. But many of us want/need to get into a holiday mood with a car caravan to Bok Tower on December 7. If you'd like to drive, invite friends who are comfortable with your small group and let Elaine know you'd like to be in the wagon train. We'll be leaving the PSL Bot Gardens at 8:30 am on the 7th, attempting to stay relatively together on the road. Entrance to Bok Tower is $12 if you can show
