

At the regular monthly meeting on March 26, members of the Rio Lindo Garden Club unanimously elected Mrs. H. B. Seager president for the coming year. Mrs. Seager is finishing a term as first vice president of the club and has previously served as treasurer. Also elected unanimsly to office were Mrs. C. J. Neill, first vice president; Mrs. R. L. Willett, second vice president; Mrs. Alfred B. Schachte, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Ignatius Kilroy, treasurer. Reelected to serve a second term as recording secretary was Miss Elizabeth E. Young. Immediately after her election Mrs. Seagar appointed Mrs. Z. E. Salisbury to serve as chaplain for the club for the coming year.

Rio Lindo
Installation
Thursday

The Rio Lindo Garden Club of Port St. Lucie will hold its luncheon and installation of officers Thursday at Frances Langford's "Outrigger Restaurant."

Members and their guests are to meet at the 7-11 Store in the Port St. Lucie Shopping Center at 11:30 a.m. for transportation. Cards will follow the luncheon.

Rio Lindo
Officers Plan
Fall Business

A business meeting of the officers and committee members of the Rio Lindo Garden Club of Port St. Lucie took place on Thursday at the home of the president, Mrs. H. B. Sieger.

Any interested women in the Port St. Lucie and River Park are are invited to join the club which will hold its first regularly scheduled meeting on Monday, Sept. 24, at 1 p.m. at the marina.

Aug 19 - 1962
Prizes Are Awarded In
3rd PSL Gardens Contest

Prizes totaling $340 were awarded Saturday to Port St. Lucie residents in the third annual Beautiful Gardens contest, Port St. Lucie Mayor John Siegel announced.

First place awards of $50 each were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brewer, 151 Estia Lane; Mrs. Vivienne Webster, 768 Cypress, River Park; Gilbert C. Heine, 127 Estia Lane; Darrell W. Sidden, 613 North Coconut Avenue, River Park, and Rex L. Willet, 219 Camino Street, River

Park. In conjunction with the contest, a 4-week garden course was held in the Port St. Lucie Methodist Church. Classes in all phases of gardening were taught by St. Lucie County Agent, Hugh Whelchel, and Fort Pierce City Superintendent, Marcus Giger. More than 135 persons took the course. Co-sponsors of the contest and the course were the Rio Lindo Garden Club and General Development Corporation.

The complete list of winners:
Class I: Foundation Plantings, Mr. and Mrs. Brewer, first prize $50; Mrs. B. M. Blount, 107 Lucero Drive, second prize $25; Miss Minnie F. Diehl, 107 Prima Vista Boulevard, third prize $10. Overall landscaping, Mrs. Webster, first prize $50; Mr. and Mrs. Jones, 120 Bonita Court, second prize $25; Charles F. Overfield, 160 Estia Lane, third prize $10.

Class II: Foundation Plantings, Gilbert C. Heine, 127 Estia Lane, first prize $50; Mr. and Mrs. Julius A. Baker, 112 E. Arbor Avenue, River Park, second $25; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene J. Connell, 124 Prima Vista Blvd., third $10. Over-all landscaping, Darrell W. Sidden, 613 North Coconut Avenue, River Park, first prize $50.

Marcus Giger
Speaks To
Rio Lindo Club

Husbands and garden-minded friends of members of the Rio Lindo Garden Club of Port St. Lucie and River Park were guests at a buffet luncheon preceding the regular meeting of the club on Monday at the Port St. Lucie marina.

Highlighting the luncheon table was an heirloom sterling silver coffee service presided over by Mrs. H. B. Seager, president of the club.

Nine new members were received into the organization which makes a total of 20 new members this year.

Marcus Giger, only recently returned from taking a landscaping course at the University of Miami, spoke to the group on landscaping design for the home. He clarified points that were raised by the audience with sketches on the blackboard. Points stressed by Mr. Giger were landscaping the corners of the house and the use of islands in landscaping.

Miss Elizabeth Young, recording secretary is now taking reservations for the Friday meeting of the District 10 Federation of Garden Clubs. Reservations must be made by Monday.

It was announced by Mrs. T. A. Hunt, social chairman that a card party will be sponsored by the club at the marina on Nov.

The Rio Lindo Garden Club held its first meeting of the season this past Monday in the Port St. Lucie Marina. Hostesses were Mrs. James Donnelly, Mrs. Theodore Hunt, Mrs. Dean Gable, and Mrs. Barney Bryant. A talk and demonstration was given on arrangements of flowers and the various types of varieties by Mrs. Walter Warren. 9/26/62

Marcus Giger To Speak To Rio Lindo Club

Marcus Giger will be speaker for the Monday meeting of the Rio Lindo Garden Club of Port St. Lucie and River Park. Members are asked to meet at the Port St. Lucie marina at 12:30 p.m.

The meeting will be based on horticulture and this theme will be developed by Mr. Giger, who will present a talk entitled "Horticulture for Beauty in Our Gardens." Members with plants they are unable to identify are asked to bring them to the meeting where Mr. Giger will name them.

Husbands are invited to attend this meeting as are any other guests members may wish to invite. All are asked to bring a sandwich with them.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Aime Musty, Mrs. Clyde Hupp and Mrs. Leslie Johnston. Mrs. Theo Hunt will be in charge.

* * * 10/24/62

Rio Lindo Circle To Sponsor Card Party At Marina

A card party has been scheduled for Thursday at the Port St. Lucie marina. The event, slated for 1 p.m. will be sponsored by the Rio Lindo Garden Club of Port St. Lucie and River Park. Proceeds will be applied towards the president's project for this year.

There will be prizes and refreshments will be served. Those attending are asked to bring their own cards. Tickets will be available at the door and all card