Flowers in all sizes, colors and varieties, along with a large assortment of potted plants and dried arrangements, were exhibited Saturday at the annual spring flower show.

The show, sponsored by the St. Lucie County Federation of Garden Circles and the Rio Lindo Garden Club, continues from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. today at the Shrine Club, 2401 S. 29th St. Admission is $2.

Mrs. Robert Mee, of the Palm Vista Circle, won a blue ribbon for her "Salute to Independence." It was a centerpiece of red geraniums in a white milk glass dish centered with a blue candle. Spode "Blue Tower" china on a white placement with red napkin completed the holiday arrangement.

Dried protea and philodendron leaves clustered on a wooden base won second place in "A Story Told," for Mrs. Edwin Baker of Orange Blossom Garden Club. A two-foot-tall cypress knee with barbed wire circled around the arrangement won this comment from the judges, "Interpretation well done. Mechanics worked out in fine shape."

Mrs. Ronald Lane's "By the Water's Edge" earned her a blue ribbon for cattails, anthium and lotus pods tucked into a tackle box with a miniature bamboo pole, which had hooked a blossom. Mrs. Lane is a member of Palm Vista Garden Circle.

Blue ribbons were awarded in the following categories to these winners. Their garden club affiliation follows their name:
